

A Collective Mission Drives LIFE-SAVING INNOVATION

A passionate author, John knows that a good novel weaves together suspense, hope and resolution. In 2023, his own life story began a new chapter of uncertainty. Doctors discovered an abdominal aneurysm nearly five times its normal size and at risk of rupture.

Turning to the vascular care team at Englewood Health, John found reassurance in their expertise and compassion. Surgeons performed a life-saving revascularization, restoring blood flow and preventing a potentially fatal outcome. Today, with recovery behind him, John is looking forward to writing his next chapter—and returning to the ski slopes this winter.

Your commitment as a Physician Partner helps make stories like John's possible—advancing technologies, robotics and treatments that make an extraordinary impact.

The team at Englewood Health gave me my life back. Their skill and care turned fear into confidence, and I'm endlessly grateful.” —John Lowe
